

What the 1,900 enzyme-annotated pairs are graded as “Unknown” means DDInter records no clinical grade for the pair — it does not mean the pair is safe. Treating it as a negative class will bias any downstream analysis.

